Amanda Shipley is the Chief Communications Officer of Hellerman Communications, an award-winning corporate communications agency positioning professionals to build and protect lucrative relationships.

Amanda is a public relations and political professional experienced in working with local businesses, non-profit organizations, trade associations and stakeholders. Amanda kick-started her career with Hellerman four years ago, while obtaining her Masters in Applied Politics at American University. With Hellerman, she developed a critical knowledge of content marketing, social media and influencer engagement. Amanda specializes in these areas, plus brand management and strategic relations.

Prior to joining Hellerman Communications, Amanda was the Scheduler for Congressman Bob Gibbs (OH-07). On Capitol Hill, Amanda managed the Congressman's daily schedule in Washington and the district, coordinated sponsored events and responded to constituent concerns.

Born and raised in Ohio, Amanda attended Wittenberg University where she graduated summa cum laude with a B.A. in Political Science and minor in Economics.
